

Darren De Witt Named Manager Retail Branch at Interra Credit Union

IMMEDIATE RELEASE, September 9, 2024 – Liz Borntager, Vice President, Senior Manager Retail Delivery, announced that Darren De Witt has been named Assistant Vice President, Manager Retail Branch Interra's main office. De Witt will provide daily operations, support, and coaching for the retail team. He will also focus on membership growth and community engagement.

Darren De Witt

De Witt has more than two decades of managerial leadership in the financial services industry. Not only is he excited to create relationships with our members, but he also brings his skills as a leader to help shape a positive environment.

He enjoys taking part in mission work, whether it's locally, regionally, or internationally. He has been out of the country five times helping build communities. De Witt serves as the Co-Chair of Summer of Service Michiana, a weekend conference for students to make a difference in the community.

In his spare time, De Witt enjoys watching the Chicago Bears and spending time outdoors with his family and three dogs. He is also very involved in his church as a youth minister for the past sixteen years.

He currently resides in Osceola with his wife Kimberly. They have three sons and two granddaughters.

Interra Credit Union, headquartered in Goshen, Indiana, was chartered in 1932 and has assets of $1.8 billion.
